Minor in Photography 15 credits

Entering Fall 2013/Spring 2014

Minor Code 0057

The Minor in Photography at AIB Is designed to provide a solid foundation, both technically and conceptually, in the medium of photography and its pertinent relationships to today's designers, illustrators, animators, fine artists and critical thinkers. The required photography foundation options will integrate you into the program so that you feel comfortable and at home with other majors and in all the studios, labs and seminars. The elective options allow you to focus on a particular facet or level of expertise in the discipline.
