

eLIS Digital Resources Collection: Frequently Asked Questions

What is the eLIS Digital Collection?

The eLIS Digital Collection is a collection of K-12 and higher education websites, games, activities, and tools, as well as professional resources and teacher materials.

Who can use this resource?

The eLIS Digital Collection is available to all Lesley Community members and visitors.

How do I find sites?

The Digital Collection is a searchable database. Search by subject, audience, or focus / topic. A search tips and definitions guide can be downloaded at <http://www.lesley.edu/elis/docs/collectionsearchdef.pdf>.

Are the sites free?

Most titles in the collection are free websites or open source downloads. Some sites may be fee-based subscriptions, which is noted in the entry.

What's new?

New sites are being added every week. Up-to-date information and highlights may be found on the eLIS blog at <http://www.elis-lesley.blogspot.com/>.

How do I report errors?

If you notice an error in our database (URL not working, site has been moved or discontinued, inaccurate information, etc.) please email us at elisresources@lesley.edu.

Can I recommend sites?

We are always looking for recommendations! Email your suggestions to us at elisresources@lesley.edu.
